

Music is light. Music is life. This summer, Jazz will bring us back into the light. For two days, July 30 and 31, the Cambridge Jazz Foundation is committed to helping us all to salute the sun — and to celebrate life — with the return of the Cambridge Jazz Festival.

Since its inception the Cambridge Jazz Foundation has worked to fulfill a mission to provide equity, engagement, and access to Jazz. We are asking you to help us fulfill our commitment to equity, engagement, and access to this priceless music.

OVER 8K IN SCHOLARSHIPS AWARDED

This summer, we will bring two full days of top quality, free, fantastic Jazz: Grammy award winners and internationally recognized talents who either reside within — or can't wait for the opportunity to visit and play for — our community.

Our last festival brought 15,000 Jazz fans, folks of all ages and backgrounds, to Daney Park to listen, to dance, to revel in the power and joy of Jazz.

We cannot wait to do more, to do better, to underscore the impact of this art in our lives, let alone to offer its wider community base to share in contributing to our regional and local economy. We believe we have — and are a destination for — world-class jazz players and believe our city has and continues to contribute immensely to the essential musical conversation Jazz embodies.

MIT is leading us forward as our host, with our inaugural gala and dance party. This event, on Friday, July 29, will lead us all into a weekend of celebration, and will honor the lifetime commitment of public service from our good friend, Louie DePasquale, the Cambridge City Manager.

We are eager to let music fill the summer air once again at our city's very own Jazz Festival. We can't wait to have you join us in the groove — and we are humbly asking you to help us to amplify our efforts to share that groove with the entire city.

Please join us by supporting Cambridge Jazz Foundation. Help to amplify the arts, and, most importantly, to share in bringing this music to all of us, in joyous syncopation. We can't wait to see you, and we hope you'll help us all get together after too long apart.
